Namaskar

We welcome you on this exciting unwinding journey with us. For time immemorial India has welcomed visitors from across the world to its rich heritage, traditions, culture, religions, cuisine, arts & crafts etc..... Whether it was the Chinese scholar Huen Tsang or the Portuguese Explorer Vasco da Gama, or perhaps even the representatives of the East India Company - they came to India to explore this mystic country, see its many cultures and traditions coexist in perfect harmony and to take back with them everything..... from knowledge to technology, Salt to Spices, Indigo to Saffronthe list is endless...

Moving forward to today's times, India still retains its Mystic and colorful identity as one of the most exotic destinations in the world. With some of the oldest civilizations leaving their impressions in the shape of monuments and heritage from their period, it is quite difficult not to be overwhelmed by the sheer dimensions of the land and the riot of colors that forms its people.

A Plethora of choices

Whether you are looking for the most exclusive hideaway destinations, or wish to explore the untamed Forests & Nature reserves, Raft down the cascading rivers with an unspoilt and breathtaking terrain, Sample the exotic cuisine which is as diverse & sumptuous as the land itself, Or perhaps simply take a walk in the wilderness without bumping into your next door neighbour... we will be happy to put together an assortment of very interesting vacation ideas for you.

No subject or interest is alien to us and the more unheard of the desire, the more enthusiastic you will find us..... Bird watching, wildlife trips, nature walks and trails, hot air ballooning, camel or horse safaris, rail fanning, village and farm stays, senior citizen travel we can handle them all... and the list just goes on...

Come to us for a holiday of lifetime and we know from our experience ... that you will fall in love with this wonderful and incredible land of surprises.

The Ground Realities - Guides

A knowledgeable guide can not only make your tour a memorable experience, but will also help you get deeper insights into various aspects and facets of life of India; that you never knew existed.

We use highly qualified experienced Guides and Tour Managers who accompany you on the trips and show you around, not just because its their job to do so, but also because they are passionate about their country and would like to send back a friend of India who will want to come back and explore more and more of this wonderful land. They are also well versed to handle all types of situations and to find practical solutions on the ground to ensure you are not inconvenienced.

Don't be surprised if you sometimes find us personally escorting you or your guests through an unexplored part of the country, as for us, the ultimate reward is being able to turn your dream vacation into a reality and we will stop at nothing to ensure that you achieve it.

Our Bouquet of Hotels

At Unwind India, we have carefully selected an assortment of hotels across the country who have carved a niche for themselves by establishing high standards of services and personalization .

Our recommendation for accommodation ranges from a camping option in a remote mountain region to the most luxurious Spa Resort and from a super luxury modern hotel to a rural home stay.

Whether you are staying at a city centre downtown hotel, or a pristine nature resort in the middle of nowhere, you can be assured of the fact that you are not only not away from home...· You ARE in fact AT HOME...·

The Joy of doing what you wish to - Tailor Made Options

Every single program that we offer is fully flexible and can be adjusted according to YOUR specific needs...·

Which means you can not just change the routing and direction of the trip, but can also add extra days at any stop over along the route, change one specific hotel or all the hotels or for that matter what ever catches your fancy·

We would be happy to put all the requisites together to package them into an unbeatable holiday option·
